

List of Reviewers

We sent a draft of the evidentiary framework paper and each reference guide for comment and review to many individuals. We received a range of comments that informed our revision of the material into final form. However, inclusion on the list that follows does not necessarily represent a reviewer's approval of the final product. The names of several reviewers have been omitted from the list at their request. Any errors or shortcomings in the final product are our responsibility.

We are grateful for assistance received from the following people.
