

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF _____

CASE NO. _____

Petitioner,

v.

Respondent.

_____ /

CONSENT ORDER DIRECTING RETURN OF MINOR CHILDREN
TO COUNTRY OF HABITUAL RESIDENCE

The Court orders, pursuant to the 1980 Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction (the “Hague Convention”) and the International Child Abduction Remedies Act, 22 U.S.C. §§ 9001 et. seq. and with the consent of both parties as evidenced by the signatures of their counsel, that _____ (the “minor child”), whose date of birth is _____, be returned in the company of [name of party], to the sovereign nation of [name of country], departing the United States of America from _____ airport on _____ Airlines, Flight Number _____ on date _____ and arriving at _____ airport on [date], and that said party report the delivery of the minor child to the appropriate Central Authority. Upon confirmation from the Petitioner that the minor child has been returned to [name of country] Petitioner that the minor child has been returned to [name of country], Petitioner’s counsel shall immediately dismiss this Hague Convention Petition.

By virtue of this Order, [name of party] has the exclusive right to the temporary physical and legal custody of the minor child for the limited purpose of returning the minor child to [name of country].

This Order is not a determination of the merits of any custody issues within the meaning of Article 19 of the Hague Convention.

The Order of this Court is made under the authority of 22 U.S.C. § 9001(a), conferring jurisdiction upon this Court.

THEREFORE, TO ANY PEACE OFFICER IN THE STATE OF _____ OR TO ANY FEDERAL OFFICER:

You are hereby commanded to assist, name of party to remove the minor child from the United States of America, and to allow name of party, to accompany the minor child to name of country, giving, name of party the right without interference to have the minor child in his / her lawful temporary custody for the purposes described herein.

This Order is effective the date below written, and shall continue in force and effect until modified or cancelled by a court of competent jurisdiction in name of country.

IT IS SO ORDERED:

Date

United States District Judge
United States District Court for the District of

APPROVED AS TO FORM AND CONTENT:

/S/
Attorneys for Petitioner

/S/
Attorneys for Respondent