

CLE materials for

Court Web: Leadership in the Judiciary

The Federal Judicial Center has provided the attached materials to assist courts in program planning and in applying for continuing legal education (CLE) credit for the webcast Court Web: Leadership in the Judiciary. The materials include faculty biography, a continuing legal education application form, and a certificate of attendance (fillable and not fillable forms) for the webcast.

The Center is unable to process individual applications for CLE credit, and therefore there is no preapproval, but these materials will help you facilitate the process in your court. Each individual attorney is responsible for submitting an application for CLE and for making any payments that are required. The Center does not have course numbers for the jurisdictions; you will have to acquire that information once you apply for CLE credit in the jurisdiction for which you desire credit. With regard to the Court Training Specialist signature that is required on the Certificate of Attendance, you can have your court's Training Coordinator/Training Specialist or Human Resources Specialist/Human Resources Manager sign the certificate. (The FJC does not sign this document.) After it is signed, please submit the form to the CLE Commission or State Bar for which you seek credit. We strongly recommend that you contact your state's CLE board for information about CLE requirements, which vary from state to state.

If you have any questions about the CLE application process please contact Rhonda Starks at 202-502-4059 or rstarks@fjc.gov. If you have any questions about the program in general please contact Brenda Baldwin-White at 202-502-4112 or Bbaldwin-white@fjc.gov.

Program Description

Court Web: Leadership in the Judiciary

June 29, 2022 – 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Host Brenda Baldwin-White, Senior Judicial Education Attorney, talks with Judge R. Guy Cole, Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals, and Judge Jeremy Fogel (ret.), Executive Director of the Berkeley Judicial Institute and former director of the Federal Judicial Center, about leadership in the judiciary. Given the importance of their role, judges often are called upon to be leaders. But the knowledge, skills, and attributes needed for effective leadership are different from those needed for deciding cases. This episode of Court Web explores some of the most important competencies required for leaders, including an ability to model core institutional values, engage with colleagues and stakeholders at every level of an organization, understand and be attentive to power dynamics, and reflect the public trust for which everyone in the judiciary has a responsibility.
