

CLE materials for

Court Web: Recent Developments in Criminal Procedure and Evidence Law

The Federal Judicial Center has provided the attached materials to assist courts in program planning and in applying for continuing legal education (CLE) credit for the webcast Court Web: Recent Developments in Criminal Procedure and Evidence Law. The materials include faculty biography, a continuing legal education application form, and a certificate of attendance (fillable and not fillable forms) for the webcast.

The Center is unable to process individual applications for CLE credit, and therefore there is no preapproval, but these materials will help you facilitate the process in your court. Each individual attorney is responsible for submitting an application for CLE and for making any payments that are required. The Center does not have course numbers for the jurisdictions; you will have to acquire that information once you apply for CLE credit in the jurisdiction for which you desire credit. With regard to the Court Training Specialist signature that is required on the Certificate of Attendance, you can have your court's Training Coordinator/Training Specialist or Human Resources Specialist/Human Resources Manager sign the certificate. (The FJC does not sign this document.) After it is signed, please submit the form to the CLE Commission or State Bar for which you seek credit. We strongly recommend that you contact your state's CLE board for information about CLE requirements, which vary from state to state.

If you have any questions about the CLE application process, please contact Rhonda Starks at 202-502-4059 or rstarks@fjc.gov. If you have any questions about the program in general, please contact Brenda Baldwin-White at 202-502-4112 or Bbaldwin-white@fjc.gov.

Program Description

Court Web: Recent Developments in Criminal Procedure and Evidence Law

October 26, 2022 – 1:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m. ET

Host Brenda Baldwin-White, Senior Judicial Education Attorney, talks with Laurie Levenson, Professor of Law at Loyola Law School, Los Angeles, about recent issues in the areas of criminal procedure and evidence. In particular, she will focus on the use of Special Masters, whether a victim's DNA may be used in unrelated prosecutions against the victim, the use of attorney admissions against a criminal defendant, the current status of the Bond search doctrine, standards for the "custody" requirement for Miranda, how recent gun laws affect standards for stopping motorists, whether bad parking is sufficient for reasonable suspicion, Sixth Amendment limits on agency interviews of detainees, limits on fingerprinting practices, driverless cars and Fourth Amendment issues, legality of multiple pat downs during one stop, baggy pants and the Fourth Amendment, the extent to which the smell of marijuana is a grounds for reasonable suspicion, coercion and involuntary interrogations, chalking tires and the Fourth Amendment, massage parlors and the Fourth Amendment, and the impact of amended Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16 and proposed Amendment to Federal Rule of Evidence 702 on expert evidence in criminal cases.

Faculty: Laurie L. Levenson, Professor of Law & David W. Burcham Chair in Ethical Advocacy, Loyola Law School, Los Angeles.
